

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Boston to Host the First Annual Y.O.U.R. Music Awards Celebrating Independent Artists and Cultural Excellence

Boston, MA — A powerful new music and cultural event is coming to Boston as the 1st Annual Y.O.U.R. Music Awards (Your Own Unique Repertoire) prepares to take center stage on Saturday, September 5, 2026, at the historic Strand Theatre in Boston's Dorchester community.

Created to celebrate independent music and artistic expression, the Y.O.U.R. Music Awards will bring together artists, producers, cultural leaders, community organizations, and music fans from across New England and beyond for an evening dedicated to honoring creativity, diversity, and musical excellence.

The awards program will spotlight emerging and established artists whose music inspires, informs, and empowers audiences. With categories representing genres such as hip-hop, jazz, R&B, spoken word, and other influential styles, the Y.O.U.R. Music Awards aims to highlight the powerful role music plays in shaping culture and bringing communities together.

The evening's program will begin with a red carpet experience at 4:30 p.m., welcoming artists, media, and special guests. The main awards ceremony and live performances will begin at 6:30 p.m., featuring dynamic stage performances, special guest appearances, and the presentation of awards recognizing outstanding contributions to music and the arts.

Event organizers expect the event to draw more than 1,400 attendees, including artists, community leaders, elected officials, music industry professionals, and supporters of the arts. The Y.O.U.R. Music Awards also serve as an important platform to elevate independent voices and create opportunities for emerging talent.

In addition to the awards ceremony, the Y.O.U.R. Music Awards is currently welcoming artist nominations, sponsorship partners, vendors, and community supporters interested in being part of this landmark cultural celebration.

Media outlets, journalists, and content creators are invited to attend and cover the event, including access to the red carpet, artist interviews, and live performances.

For media inquiries, sponsorship opportunities, or general information, please contact:

Y.O.U.R. Music Awards

Email: yourmusicawards@gmail.com

Phone: (617) 686-1377

Additional event details and announcements will be released in the coming months as the Y.O.U.R. Music Awards prepares to showcase the next generation of artists and celebrate the cultural power of music.

About the Y.O.U.R. Music Awards

The Y.O.U.R. Music Awards (Your Own Unique Repertoire) is an annual celebration dedicated to recognizing independent artists whose music inspires communities and elevates culture. By honoring originality, performance excellence, and meaningful creative expression, the awards create a platform where powerful voices and diverse musical traditions can be recognized and shared with a wider audience.

